Commentary

Definitions

Trend series estimates are used to "smooth" data to enable longer term trends to become more noticeable. They are the preferred series to use when making a comparison over time, e.g. 12 months.

Original series estimates (or unadjusted estimates) are the survey data as collected, generalised to the relevant population. These estimates have not been seasonally adjusted or trend adjusted ("smoothed").

Employment

States' trend series comparisons

The Australian and State trend series comparisons are given on page 24. There was an increase of 3.2% in Tasmania's employment over the year to July 1995. The largest percentage increase in employment was in Queensland (5.8%). The next highest percentage increase in employment was in Western Australia (5.1%), followed by Victoria (4.5%) and NSW (4.1%). South Australia had an increase in employment of 2.0%.

Regional Tasmania's original series figures

In the Hobart and Southern Statistical Division the estimate of unadjusted employment increased by 3,200 between June 1994 and June 1995 to 101,700. Employment in the Northern Statistical Division increased by 1,900 between June 1994 and June 1995 to 54,200. The estimate of employment in the Mersey-Lyell Statistical Division was 42,600 in June 1995, a decrease of 1,500 on the figure for June 1994.

(See tables 3-8, pages 2-7.)

Unemployment

Tasmania's trend series figures

The Tasmanian provisional trend series estimate of 20,500 unemployed persons in July 1995 was a decrease of 2,700 on the figure for July 1994 of 23,200. The estimate of the unemployment rate of 9.2% in July 1995 compared with 10.6% in July 1994.

(See tables 3-8, pages 2-7.)

The labour force

Tasmania's trend series figures

In July 1995 there was an unadjusted estimate of 367,300 civilian Tasmanians aged 15 or more. There were an estimated 221,800 persons (based on trend series estimates) in the labour force. The estimate of the labour force participation rate in July 1995 was 60.4%, compared with the figure of 59.6% in July 1994.

For males, the estimate of the participation rate was 70.8%, the same as for July 1994. For females, the estimate of the participation rate was 50.3%, compared with 48.7% in July 1994.

Employed wage and salary earners

In September 1994 there were approximately 138,900 employed wage and salary earners in Tasmania. In September 1992 the figure was 144,300 employed wage and salary earners.

In August 1994 the Tasmanian public sector accounted for 31.8% of all employed wage and salary earners. Overall, the category Community services had the highest industry representation—28.9%—compared with the equivalent figure of 27.8% recorded in August 1992. The next highest industry grouping was Wholesale trade and Retail trade (18.3%, compared with 19.9% in August 1992) and Manufacturing (15.8%, compared with 15.0% in August 1992).

In August 1994, women made up 46.3% of employed wage and salary earners. In August 1992, the equivalent figure was 45.8%.
(See table 9, page 8.)

Award rates of pay indexes

The annual movement from June 1994 to June 1995 of weekly award rates of pay indexes for Tasmania rose by 0.8% for full-time adult females and by 1.3% for full-time adult males, for a combined annual increase of 1.2%. For Australia, the figures were 1.1% for females and 0.9% for males, for a combined annual increase of 1.0%.

For full-time adult female employees in Tasmania, the largest industry increases over this 12 month period occurred in the Manufacturing industry (2.6%); and the Recreation, personal and other services industry (2.5%).

For the same period for full-time adult male employees in Tasmania, the largest industry increases occurred in the Community services industry (3.8%); and the Electricity, gas and water industry (2.2%).

The largest occupation increase over the same period for full-time adult female employees occurred in Tradespersons (2.9%); and Plant and machine operators, and drivers (2.3%).

For full-time adult male employees, the largest occupation increases over the period occurred in Plant and machine operators, and drivers (3.1%); and Managers and administrators (2.1%).

Consumer price index

The CPI All Groups Index for Hobart increased by 4.2% for the twelve months ending June 1995. This was below the increase for the weighted average of the eight capital cities, at 4.5%, and was only the fifth highest increase of any capital city for the period.

The highest increase was recorded for Perth, at 5.3%; and the lowest for Melbourne and Adelaide, at 3.8% each.

For the June quarter 1995, the CPI increased for Hobart by 0.9%, while the national increase was 1.3%. The highest quarterly increases were recorded for Perth, with 1.7%, and Sydney, with 1.5%.

Major contributions to the quarterly increase for Hobart were tobacco and alcohol (up 2.0%), the price of which increased nationally as the result of an increase in the Commonwealth excise on manufactured tobacco and tobacco products from 9 May 1995. Housing costs were up by 2.4%, due to a combination of increased interest rates, and an increase of the value of debt outstanding. Privately owned dwelling rents also rose.

Transportation prices rose by 1.8%, mainly as a result of the increase in the rate of Wholesales Sales Tax on non-luxury passenger motor vehicles from 16% to 21% from 9 May 1995.

Consumer Price Index, June quarter 1995, ABS Catalogue No. 6401.0, released on 26 July 1995, $13.00.

Building materials prices

The price index of materials used in house building in Hobart decreased by 0.1% in June 1995, which was in line with the national trend. Only Sydney (0.6%), Adelaide (0.1%) and Canberra (0.1%) recorded an increase in June 1995. For the twelve-month period ending June, Hobart's index increased by 4.4%, the highest increase of any of the capital cities, and well above the Australian average of 3.1%.

The price of materials used in other than house building increased in Hobart in June by 0.4%, which was the highest monthly increase of any capital city except Perth which also recorded an increase of 0.4%.

For the twelve months ending June 1995, Hobart recorded an increase in this index of 3.3%, which was well above the national increase of 2.9%. Of the seven capital cities, only Melbourne, at 2.0%, and Canberra, at 2.8%, recorded increases below the national level.

The main contributors to the index increase in Hobart this month were structural steel and builders hardware. At the national level, an increase in the price of mains cable was partly offset by a decrease in the price of readymixed concrete.

Price index of Materials Used in House Building, June 1995, ABS Catalogue No. 6408.0, released on 3 August 1995, $10.00.

Price Index of Materials Used in Other than House Building, June 1995, ABS Catalogue No. 6407.0, released on 3 August 1995, $13.00.

Housing finance

The trend estimate of the number of secured housing finance commitments entered into in Tasmania in June 1995 rose 2.1% on the previous month. This is the third successive monthly rise, following a period of decline.

The national trend estimate followed a similar pattern, with increases in May and June, once again following an extended period of decline.

In the twelve months ended June 1995, the Tasmanian trend estimate of number of commitments fell 11%, from 1,015 to 907. This was a much smaller fall than the Australian estimate which fell 26%, from 46,127 to 34,096.

Housing Finance for Owner Occupation, ABS Catalogue No. 5609.0, released on 17 August 1995, $13.00.

Retail

The trend estimate for turnover of retail and service establishments for June 1995, in Tasmania, was $236.9 million, an increase of more than 2% on the June 1994 figure of $231.5 million. The trend growth for Tasmania fell to a weak 0.3% for June after recording moderate to strong growth of 0.5% or more since January this year.

The trend estimate of turnover for June 1995, for Australia ($9,627 million), was over 7% higher than for June 1994. The trend estimate of retail turnover increased by 0.5% in June, the weakest monthly increase since January 1995.

(a) Source: Australian Dairy Corporation. (b) Changing productivity per staff-hour makes these indicators unsatisfactory for long-term comparisons. (c) Metallurgical refining index (Base: 1979-80 = 100.0) Output from selected establishments covering the smelting and refining of ferro-alloys, zinc and aluminium. The weighting pattern is based on the establishments' value added as derived from the 1979-80 Manufacturing Census. For multi-product establishments, value added was apportioned to products on the basis of gross receipts from each product. (d) Includes the whole milk equivalent of farm cream intake. (e) Includes butter equivalent of butter oil. (f) Includes spinning, weaving and carpet making. Reported by establishments which manufacture textiles only, or manufacture clothing and textiles in the one plant. (g) Excludes production of directory newsprint and high grade specialty paper.
